

Job Ad: Searching for a CEO

ABOUT FNEI

Five Nations Energy Inc. (FNEI) is a licensed transmitter in the province of Ontario, and owns and operates the Omushkego Ishkotayo project a 270km long transmission line that services the remote First Nation communities of Attawapiskat, Fort Albany, and Kashechewan.

Five Nations Energy Inc. is a not for profit corporation that is owned equally by Attawapiskat Power Corp., Fort Albany Power Corp. and Kashechewan Power Corporation.

www.fivenations.ca

Five Nations Energy is searching for a Leader.....

The Chief Executive Officer is a new position that will be responsible for the overall supervision, management and control of the business and affairs of Five Nations Energy Inc. under the general direction of the Board of Directors

The CEO will be accountable for all of the "day to day" decisions regarding the corporation's financial, regulatory, resourcing, safety and environmental obligations.

The CEO will be responsible for the establishment and achievement of current and long-term objectives of the Five Nations organization including developing and implementing a strategic plan.

The CEO will oversee company operations to ensure internal efficiencies, outstanding quality of service to FNEI's customers, and cost-effective management of resources.

The CEO will provide leadership to Five Nations Energy Inc.'s staff and will represent the corporation, building and managing relationships with Five Nations' First Nation shareholders, governments, and other industry leaders/organizations.

This position will be Timmins based, at FNEI's head office. Salary will be based on qualifications and experience.

If you are interested in this position, further information can be found at www.fivenations.ca, or by contacting Five Nations Energy Inc.'s head office at (705) 268 0056. This competition closes on August 29, 2008 at noon. Applications should be forwarded to the attention of Mike Metatawabin, President at Five Nations Energy Inc. 70-C Mountjoy St. N., Suite 421, Timmins, Ontario P4N 4V7. Fax: (705) 268 0071